Business Briefing

“AN AFTERNOON TO SAVE YOUR LICENCE”

Wednesday 28th February 2-4pm

The licensed trade is under pressure like never before. Changes to the licensing regime, Alcohol Disorder Zones, new gambling laws, smoking restrictions and tougher enforcement on noise, planning and under age consumption will all take effect in the next 6 months and could have pose a very real threat to your licence, your business and your livelihood.

Do you and your staff understand what you need to do to trade safely? What are the tests you need to satisfy? How are you being judged? What are the pitfalls and potential difficulties ahead? In short, how do you protect your business? Join the WLA for an in-depth seminar with all the answers. Spend an afternoon with us and ensure that you save your licence.

Hear first hand from operators of their experiences and get expert advice on how to avoid costly mistakes :

- Smoking ban: Scottish operators share their experiences and tips on how to manage the smoking ban in city centre and late night businesses. PLUS expert advice on how the ban will affect hotel rooms, external areas and vehicles
- Police closure: did you know that the police and local authority have the power to close your premises? Make sure you know the law to prevent this happening to you PLUS members share their experiences and advice on police liaison
- Noise: new powers of enforcement and the smoking ban mean noise will be the hot topic for 2007. How can you minimise the impact of your business. PLUS our planning experts share their tips on nipping complaints in the bud.
- Alcohol Disorder Zones: could paid for policing be on the way in Westminster? Find out what ADZs could cost your business and how to avoid them.
- Panel: our team of legal and professional experts will be on hand to answer queries on a host of other operational issues including AWP's, gambling reform, tax stamps.

The event will conclude with a drinks reception, providing an opportunity to meet informally colleagues in the industry, learn more about the work of the association, raise issues of concern and network. It is an event not to be missed.

The event will be held in Central London, venue to be confirmed
